

Department of Econometrics and Data Management Seminar report of Two day National Seminar on 14-15 December 2023 Topic: "Post pandemic Kerala Economy: Opportunities and Challenges"

The Department of Economics, Govt. College Mokeri with the financial support of Directorate of Colligiate Education, Government of Kerala. Conducted Two day national seminar on "Post pandemic Kerala Economy: Opportunities and Challenges" on 14-15 December 2023 at the Seminar Hall of the College.

The national Seminar was started with the welcome speech of Head of the Department, Dr. Dinesh M P. The seminar was inaugurated by Dr. C. P Shaheed Ramzan, Professor and Head of Economics, Govt. Arts and Science College, Kozhikode. In the inaugural speech he presented the mini picture of present situation of the Kerala Economy and open for the debate. The session end with the Vote of thanks by Dr. Rahiyanath.C, Guest faculty of the Department.

The Technical session 1 at 11.15 am was chaired by Dr. Sheeba Andrews, Assistant Professor in Economics, Providence women's college, Calicut. In the session, Dr. KP Vipin Chandran, Assistant Professor in Economics, KMMGWC, Kannur, presented the topic "Development Trajectories of Kerala: current challenges and future opportunities". He explained developmental challenges and future options for Kerala Economy and well clarified the queries from the audience. The session ended with the vote of thanks by the student of the Department.

The second session was started after the lunch break, at 1.30 pm. The presentation "Doing Research in Social Science and Economics in a post covid- 19 world" was made by Sri. Libi K. C, Assistant Professor in Economics, Govt. College, Koyilandy and the session was chaired by Sri Safer V M, Assistant Professor in History, Govt. College, Mokeri. Post pandemic research opportunites were discussed vibrant. After the discussions the session closed with vote of thanks.

In technical session three at 3.15 pm to 4.30pm the Reaserach Scholars of Calicut and Kannur University, Sri Jithesh VTK, Smt. Banila C respectively presented their research papers related to Covid- 19 pandemic. After the question session the chair Sri Rinchu EV, Assistant Professor in Political Science, Govt. College, Mokeri concluded the session. In second day of the seminar, the technical session-4 was started at 10 am with presentation of Dr. Krishnan Chalil, Professor and Head of School of Social Science, Central University of Bihar on the topic "Urban Local Finance in Kerala:

An empirical Analysis". He well explained the local finance of Kerala economy and clarified the queries from the audience. The session was concluded by the chair Dr. Dinesh M P, HOD of the Department of Economics, Govt. College Mokeri and ended with vote of thanks by the student of the Department.

The next technical session, 5 was held from 11.40 am to 1 pm was chaired by Dr.Krishnan Chaili, Professor and Head of School of Social Science, Central University of Bihar. Capt. Dr. Sindhu Krishnadas, Associate professor in Economics, SNG College, Chelannur clearly explained opportunities and challenges of education sector in Kerala.

The technical session 5 was chaired by Capt. Dr. Sindhu Krishnadas, Associate professor in Economics, SNG College, Chelannur. The presentation on Education and economic development: A symbiotic relation ship was made by Lt. Dr. Sujin K N, Assistant professor in Economics, Govt. Arts and science college, Calicut.

In last session of the seminar, students of the department were presented papers on challenges and opporituinites of Kerala Economy after Covid - 19 in health and education sector

The seminar was ended with valedictory session from 4.30 to 5pm.